Muzrai Secretary's Remarks.

This is the case of one of the creditors of the Sri Vyasaroyaswami Matt. and relates to a debt of ₹1,800 contracted by the late Swamigalu from one Bezwadada Chennabasava Setti. The latter's son filed a suit in the Additional Munsiff's Court, Mysore, and obtained a decree for the principal viz., ₹1,800 and interest amounting to ₹2,086-12-10, together with court costs for ₹235, out of which ₹1,050 were paid by the Matt. The balance, together with the subsequent interest amounting in all to ₹2,283-14-2 is now claimed by Subbamma, widow of Kari Basava Setti and guardian of her minor son Naganna aged about 8 years. She has been applying for execution of the decree in the Munsiff's Court, but learning that

GPB—2000—13-2-05

Muzrai Secretariat. | File No. of 190

Govt is disposing of the Matt's debts, she has applied to this Office for payment. I had the party before me with her son-in-law Hari Subbanna, and after a great deal of discussion, she consented to receive ₹s1,000 in full satisfaction of her claim and has executed a Muchalika to that effect.

I think the arrangement is a satisfactory one in the interests of the Matt considering that a decree has already been obtained and that we may be compelled to pay the whole amount of ₹s2,283-14-2 now claimed if the matter is proceeded with in Court.

If the payment of ₹s1,000 now recommended is sanctioned, I shall see the amount paid to the petitioner in the Court and see ~~the~~ satisfaction entered in the decree.

This will necessitate the sale of another loan paper of ₹s1,000 belonging to the Sri Vasavya swami Matt.

There are only Rs 1000 in the Govt. Savings Bank. If any excess has the kind according to market-rates, it will have to be borne by the donor. The anticipated interest on the Promissory notes up to the date of transfer has also to be paid by him, before the transfer can actually be effected

2. In the matter of keeping the debt-amount to the creditor, the best plan seems to be to require her to produce from a petition in the Additional Munsif's Court at Nagore stating that she would has accepted to receive from his office a sum of Rs. 1000 in full satisfaction of the Decree, ~~and~~ obtain from that Court permission or a certificate to that effect, and present it to this Office. This procedure will, I believe, save a good deal labour and give no room to our apprehensions in the matter of her probably changing her mind.
